YOUNG GIRLS AND WEALTHY MEN ARE PATRONS OF NORTH SIDE LEVEE

*New Fashionable Tenderloin on Upper North Side
Draws From All Parts of City—Chicago Starts
Vice "Cleanup"—Funkhouser "May"
Investigate North Side.*

Chicago is now indulging in its periodical vice-chasing crusade. As in all other similar crusades they are skimming the surface and browbeating the weak. This is the usual way of going about such things.

Weeks ago The Day Book exposed the fashionable district around Wilson avenue, where cafes and flats cater to the idle rich young men and the weary, pleasure-seeking young girls.

Everybody in Chicago knows now that the upper North Side, far out on Broadway, is the real tenderloin of Chicago. Its vice is most ruinous, because it is gilded. And it proves an attractive magnet to the young girls with unsinged wings.

But the morals squad chooses to ignore this sort of vice and has centered its new attack on the old places, which have such hard reputations that no young girl would venture down there.

There may be a few places running in the old levee district, but they are
